In addition, the General Assembly, in several resolutions, the most recent of which was resolution 53/60 of 3 December 1998, requested the administering Powers concerned "to transmit or continue to transmit to the Secretary-General the information prescribed in Article 73 e of the Charter, as well as the fullest possible information on political and constitutional developments in the Territories concerned".

[d] In a note verbale dated 6 April 1979 (A/34/311), the Permanent Representative of Portugal to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that the conditions still prevailing in East Timor prevented his Government from assuming its responsibilities for the administration of that Territory. He subsequently informed the Secretary-General (A/35/233, A/36/160, A/37/113, A/38/125, A/39/136, A/40/159, A/41/190, A/42/171, A/43/219 and A/44/262) that the Government of Portugal had nothing to add to the information already provided in that note. The Secretary-General was further informed by the Permanent Representative (A/45/172, A/46/131, A/47/189, A/48/130, A/49/184, A/50/214 and Corr.1, A/51/187, A/52/152, A/53/135 and A/54/121) that, since the Government of Portugal continued to be prevented de facto from exercising its responsibilities for the administration of East Timor, it remained unable to provide information required by Article 73 e of the Charter.

[e] On 26 February 1976, the Permanent Representative of Spain to the United Nations informed the Secretary-General that "the Spanish Government, as of today, definitely terminates its presence in the Territory of the Sahara and deems it necessary to place the following on record: ... (a) Spain considers itself henceforth exempt from any responsibility of an international nature in connection with the administration of the said Territory, in view of the cessation of its participation in the temporary administration established for the Territory ..." (A/31/56-S/11997). For the printed text, see Official Records of the Security Council, Thirty-first Year, Supplement for January, February and March 1976.

[f] Period extends from 1 October of the previous year to 30 September of the year listed.
